HELP JUDICIAL WATCH ENFORCE OUR IMMIGRATION LAWS

How can we expect to secure our borders when public officials continue to provide incentives for illegal aliens? Such policies only aggravate the problem. That's what happens when you reward people for breaking the law. You get more lawbreakers. Judicial Watch has a different approach to illegal immigration: Enforce the law!

- ▶ When the Town of Herndon, Virginia voted to bankroll a day laborer site for illegal aliens with taxpayer funds, Judicial Watch filed a lawsuit to try to shut it down.
- ▶ When the Bush administration tried to keep secret a Border Patrol survey that proved guest worker programs lead to an influx of illegal aliens, Judicial Watch filed a lawsuit and forced its release.
- ▶ Judicial Watch is now in court against the Los Angeles Police Department over a policy that prevents police officers from inquiring about an individual's immigration status, allowing criminal illegal aliens to roam the streets.

Don't depend on politicians to do the right thing. Help JW enforce our nation's immigration laws. Visit our Internet site, www.judicialwatch.org, today to learn about Judicial Watch's illegal immigration programs.
