16. Explanation of Item 16: Prior to her death, [REDACTED] sold an office building to a businessman, financing the purchase with him. She received monthly payments of $551.64, some of which was principal and some of which was interest. The payments run through May 2009. [REDACTED] died and while her estate was being administered, these payments were made to her estate. In 2007, her estate was closed out and [REDACTED] I began receiving the payments, dividing them equally. In 2008, [REDACTED] I decided to let one of the [REDACTED] keep all of the installment payments in recognition of the care he rendered to [REDACTED] during the last few years of her life. Therefore, I received no principal or interest payments in 2008. Last year's financial disclosure (2007) indicated these payments were to continue through May 2009 and so I concluded that this entry should be made to explain why the installment sale payments expired and no income is reported in 2008.
