VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of Report.)

ADDITIONAL EXPLANATIONS:

III #2: I purchased a residence in 2005 and my sellers rented the property back from me for one month until their new residence was ready for occupancy. This was a one-time rental arrangement and will not re-occur in the future.

Part VII: #1-6: These mutual funds are part of the State of New Mexico Public Employee Deferred Compensation Plan administered in 2005 by Nationwide Retirement Solutions. The administrator was unable to tell me exactly what is requested in column B1 (amount of income). My last contribution was in 2001 when employed with the New Mexico Court of Appeals. I withdrew all monies from this account in May 2005 and closed the account. These entries reflect the funds in my account as of the Statement of Account dated June 2005. The current Vanguard fund was substituted by Nationwide for the former Vanguard 500 Index Fund. I have added the American Century Ultra 1c Fund because it was included in my closing statement with a notation that it had a value of 52 cents.

VII #11: In 2005 my relative died. Upon her death I acquired ownership of a modest checking account which had my name as a secondary owner. Prior to the relative's death, I had no control of the account. Upon her death, I took assumed ownership of the account and utilized the account for payment of expenses of the relative. The account was closed in 2006.

VII #12: This checking account was opened in my name in spring of 2005 at direction of relative (prior to her death), with funds belonging to her. Monies were used to pay expenses of last illness, including funeral and nursing home expenses and medical expenses.

VII #13: This is the same as #13 ($15,000 sum) referenced in the 2004 report. Upon my relative's death in March 2005 this account was given to me, and I acquired full ownership at that time.

VII # 14 & 15: I was named as a co-owner of certificate of deposit accounts at US-New Mexico Federal Credit Union and Del Norte Credit Union with another party, a close relative. During her lifetime (she died in March, 2005) I claimed no ownership interest in these accounts and did not control them. My close relative died in March 2005, and after her death, these monies were distributed in equal shares to me and my siblings as payments on death accounts. These are the same accounts as listed as #s 14 and 15 in 2004 report.

VII # 16: In reviewing my 2004 report, I noted that I inadvertently failed to include a reference to a Del Norte Credit Union savings account in my name. The value category is "C".
