EMPLOYMENT

Executive Office of the President
Office of the Counsel
Old Executive Office Building
Washington, D.C.

The following investigation was conducted by SA M. Dennis Scullibrene regarding DAVID CRAIG LIVINGSTONE on 3/1-3/93.

LORI STALLINGS, Supervisory Personnel Assistant, The White House Office, Personnel Office, advised that the appointee is listed on the rolls with the EOP in the Office of the Counsel, but is not officially employed at the White House Office as a Security Assistant to the Counsel to the President at this current time (March 4, 1993). He began work on a volunteer basis about 5 weeks ago, on a temporary/part time basis. She said that these are unofficial records, and official records would not be available for an indefinite period.

BERNARD NUSSBAUM, Counsel to the President, advised that he has known the appointee for the period of time that he has been employed in the new administration. He had come highly recommended to him by HILLARY CLINTON, who has known his mother for a longer period of time. He was confident that the appointee lives a circumspect life and was not aware of any illegal drug or alcohol problems. He said that the appointee will work at the White House on security matters. He said that in the short period of time that the appointee has worked for him he has been completely satisfied with his performance, conduct and productivity. He recommended the appointee for continued access in his current capacity.

WILLIAM HOLDER KENNEDY, Associate Counsel to the President, advised that he has known the appointee since he arrived himself, to take over the office responsibilities that he currently handles. He did not hire the appointee, and was aware that the appointee may not stay in his current position. He was aware that the appointee was attempting to head the Military Office. KENNEDY said that if the appointee stays in his current position, he would recommend his access to the complex, based on the understanding that he makes such recommendation on the short period of time that he has known the appointee.
