VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of Report.)

Part VII, Investments and Trusts, Section B (2) asks for the type of income received from investments. In certain cases, however, there was more than one type. Consequently, please note that in lines 2, 3, 6, and 9 one type is listed; but in each case income was also received from "distribution." The same occurred in lines 32 and 33. There in each case "dividend" was listed but income was also received from "interest."
[This note is necessary as the software allows only one entry in section B(2).]

Part VII, Investments and Trusts, Section A, line 30, SPI, common stock: On 06/12/2006, SPI recapitalized resulting in a reduction of its outstanding shares. Consequently, the number of shares held by us were exchanged for a lesser number and the difference in value was paid in cash into our General Money Market Account at Stifel, Nicolaus & Co.

Dear Judge Smith::

Re: Calendar Year 2006 Filing

The following is to explain my entry in Part VII, page 1, line 2:

Some time during or after 2004, Prudential Bache, with whom I had my money market funds, was bought by Wachovia Corporation. Wachovia Securities is a non-bank affiliate of Wachovia Corporation where the funds are now held. These funds are held there (Wachovia Securities) as money market funds.

If you require additional explanation, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Raymond L. Finch
