Re: Calendar Year 2003 Filing

Dear Ms. Lisi:

This letter is in response to your letter of May 19, 2004.

As to the one-thousand dollar ($1,000.00) honorarium from Appalachian School of Law, I enclose a copy of my personal check for one-thousand dollars ($1,000.00) that I returned to the Appalachian School of Law. This check was written by [REDACTED] who handles my personal finances, since I am legally blind.

The House and lots, listed on page 1, line 12 is located in Lee County, VA.

In Part VII, page 1, line 3 for Farm, Jonesville, VA, the income from the farm was from a tobacco allotment. The type of income is farm income.

In Part VII, page 1, lines 3 and 12, in 1975, I purchase a [REDACTED] farm West of Jonesville Va. This farm has been listed at cost on every report I have filed. On October 12, 2000, I purchased a "House and Lots on [REDACTED] of Jonesville Va for one hundred and eight thousand dollars ($108,000.00) as shown on my 2000 report. I report the value of the property as being at cost.

In Part VII, page 1, lines 8 and 11, the value codes should not have been repeated under column C(1); therefore, we will change those to blanks Column D(3) correctly reflects the redemption price as to both of these bonds.

Finally, in Part VII, page 1, lines 17 through 21, the same value code C(1) applies to the value code for D(3).

If I failed to properly respond to any issues raise, please advise.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
