ADDENDUM

VIII

In December 2004 a contingent beneficiary of Trust # 1 as shown on my Financial Disclosure Report died. This event allowed the distribution of the assets to the remaining beneficiaries of the Trust. I marshalled all the assets by closing accounts and redeemed assets on the dates shown on my report. All liquid assets were deposited, when redeemed, in the Trust checking account at First National Bank of Polk County. These funds were then paid to attorneys Smith, Shaw & Maddox, LLP on July 12, 2005 for deposit to that firm's escrow account and then distributed to the beneficiaries of the Trust who are [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Page 3 of Part VII shown as Trust # 1 at lines 28 and 29 shows a termination date of July 12, 2005. This is the date of the transaction transferring all the accumulated liquid assets in Trust # 1 to attorneys Smith, Shaw & Maddox, LLP for payment to the beneficiaries of the Trust.

On July 28, 2005 I executed a deed to [REDACTED] [REDACTED] conveying to them all real property in the Trust.

With the actions described above all assets of Trust # 1 were distributed to the beneficiaries named.

At the end of the section of my Financial Disclosure Report in the section of Trust # 1 you will see a report on the execution of a deed to a house and lot in Cedartown, Georgia on July 28, 2005. This deed was executed by me as Co-Executor with [REDACTED] in his capacity as Co-Executor of the Estate of [REDACTED] deceased and as Successor Trustee of another trust created pursuant to the will of [REDACTED] deceased. Until this event occurred I thought this particular property was in the Marital Trust and out of the estate. This deed conveyed the property to [REDACTED]. My relationship to this transaction was only as Co-Executor in executing this deed of assent.

In 2005 I was discharged as Co-Executor and Trustee of Estate # 1.
