RE: Amendment to Calendar Year 2005 Filing

Dear Judge Smith:

Please accept this as a response to your letter dated July 25, 2006 related to items on my disclosure report dated May 5, 2006.

In regards to Part V, Gifts, I would like to inform the committee that there were no reportable gifts. We have noted this in our report for future reference.

In regards to Part VI, line 1, the mortgage note to "International Bank of Commerce" was for a vacant lot on which construction of a new residence was started in 2006. We have noted this in our report for future reference.

In regards to Part VII, line 16 and 26, this was an oversight in reporting and we have made the appropriate corrections for future reference.

In regards to Part III A., line 1, honorarium received from my alma mater, Del Mar College, was a token amount given for being the keynote speaker at graduation ceremonies. I traveled an excess of 360 miles and incurred lodging and meal expenses. I have attached a letter from the College regarding this payment. I hope that this will help clarify any questions the committee may have.

Please advise if any additional information is needed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Hilda G. Tagle

What's your dream?

August 10, 2006

Honorable Judge Hilda Tagle
U. S. District Judge
600 E. Harrison, Room 306
Brownsville, TX 78520

Dear Judge Tagle:

I am writing to hopefully help provide information on the honorarium that you received from the College for your participation as commencement speaker for our Spring 05 graduation program. Thank you so much for keeping Del Mar College close to your heart. We are very proud to have you as a former student and former distinguished faculty member.

The honorarium in the amount of $200.00 is given to speakers like you and is intended to cover some of your cost of travel, lodging, meals and incidentals that you may have incurred in traveling to the College to share your thoughts and words of encouragement with our graduating students. While it is not a significant amount, it is a token of our appreciation for your willingness to share our student success.

I hope this short explanation will assists you in clarifying the payment to your financial disclosure committee. It was our privilege to have you on campus once again.

Regards

J. L. Adair, Vice President
Business and Finance
