VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of Report.)

V. OTHER GIFTS. (Continuation of Sec. III).

The recent legislation limiting gifts to a judge of honorary club memberships to $50 per membership per year has required me to focus on whether I really have received gifts from The Fort Worth Club since I became a judge by reason of not having to pay the monthly fees that I was required to pay before I became a judge. My club membership in The Fort Worth Club was not a gift. I bought it in 1966, and have continued to have that same membership at all times since then. The club simply discontinued billing me for monthly fees when I became a judge. If there was a gift involved, it was made when the club discontinued billing me for monthly fees about eighteen years ago. In other words, The Fort Worth Club in effect converted my membership at that time from a fee-paying membership to a non-fee-paying membership. Consequently, if there was any gift involved, it was the difference as of the date when my membership was converted of the then present value of my non-fee-paying membership and the value, as of that time, of the membership I already had. In other words, while I probably should have reported that difference in value eighteen years ago, I should not have been reporting annually that I was receiving benefits from an ongoing honorary membership because that has not been an accurate report. For the sake of continuity, I am reporting the dollar amount of the fees that would have been charged to me during the year 2008 if I had continued to have a fee-paying membership. However, my plan is not to make such a report in the future even if I continue to have a non-fee-paying membership.

VIII. INVESTMENTS.

Dividends on the non-IRA mutual funds are reinvested as declared except the T. Rowe Price-High Yield Fund, Vanguard Tax-Free Funds, and Nuveen Fund.

The royalty income in relation to the Sherman County, Texas, mineral interest (item 57) was received from BP American Production Co.

All items of property listed in Section VII are the community property [REDACTED] owned by [REDACTED] mc.
