VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of Report.)

Part VII - Line 4 - One of three accounts closed 12/17/09 and proceeds used to purchase CD at Colorado Federal Savings Bank (line 18).

Part VII - Line 5 - Mutual taken over by United Central Bank 9/1/09 (line 21).

Part VII - Line 7 - Taken over by Bank of America 11/6/09 (line 17).

- Line 8 - Became Ally Bank (line 16) exact date unknown.
- Line 9 - Became MB Financial (line 19) 08/09.
- Line 10 - Funds used to open an account with Ally (line 16).
- Line 11 - Funds used to purchase a CD at Discover (line 12).
- Line 12 - Second account opened with closed account at Zions (line 14).
- Line 14 - Funds from closed account went to Discover (line 12).
- Line 20 - Opened with funds from Corus (MB Financial Bank).

Note: Except for Key Bank and Chase Bank [redacted] accounts which are checking accounts, all of the reported transactions showing interest income involve Certificates of Deposit. The dates of closing one account and opening a new account don't always match up because sometimes I will use a wire transfer to a new account and other times the account is closed and it might take two weeks for the bank to send me the check. Sometimes I am able to invest the money from a closed account immediately, and other times I have to shop around. The amounts from a closed account and new account don't always match because sometimes I will put the money in two different places from a closed account, and sometimes I will add money from my checking account or [redacted] checking account. It's not like stock sales where you usually get an opening and sale date in a statement from a broker.

Also as interest rates have plummeted, the current report might show a larger value, but nonetheless, a smaller amount of interest earned.
