Re: 2005 Financial Disclosure

Dear Mr. Smith:

In response to your correspondence of June 26, 2006, enclosed please find an Amended 2005 Financial Disclosure Report. On my original report, the box next to "Gifts", part IV, was inadvertently left not checked. I have corrected the omission on the amended report, and the "None" box is now checked.

You also inquired about the circumstances surrounding the deletion of the Janus Fund investment and its replacement with the Vanguard Admiral Treasury Money Market. These are funds into which my deferred compensation contributions from when I was employed by the State of Wisconsin were directed. They are held in trust by the Wisconsin Department of Employee Trust Funds. The change resulted from a decision by the fund to discontinue the Janus Fund. My contributions to that fund were transferred to the Vanguard Admiral Treasury Money Market.

I hope this clears up any confusion concerning my financial disclosure filing. Please let me know if you have any further questions.

Very truly yours,

William C. Griesbach
United States District Judge
