SENIOR UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

June 22, 2005

Honorable Mary M. Lisi, Chair
Judicial Conference Of The United States
Committee On Financial Disclosure
One Columbia Circle, N. E.
Washington, D.C. 20544

Re: Calendar Year 2004 Filing

Dear Judge Lisi:

This letter is in response to yours of June 10, 2004 and will serve as an amendment to my report.

All of the assets in question are assets that are held in a [REDACTED] trust that was established in 1928. I am a third generation beneficiary of this trust and by my count from the annual report that I receive from the JPMorgan Personal Asset Management office of the Chase Bank, I am one of 22 current income beneficiaries. Although the trust value from the annual report is in the P1 ($1,000,000 - $5,000,000) range, as I have reported at Part VII, line 29, the income which I received in 2004 totaled $708.00.

As I hope is clear from my report, the assets in Part VII, page 3, lines 37 - 54 are a continuation of the assets which were reported to me as held by the trust as noted at page 2, lines 29 - 36. The assets shown on page 3, lines 37 - 54 were newly acquired by the trust since their last annual report to me. The transaction history in Column D was left blank as to these assets for the same reason that it is blank as to items 30 to 36 on page 2. For me to attempt to reconstruct a detailed history of the acquisition or sale and an accompanying gain or loss, by the trust officer at Chase Bank of each asset held by the bank in this trust for the year would be a monumental task.

The inquiry in your third paragraph as to "JP Morgan Sel T/A Lrg Cap Val Fd" listed in my 2003 report at Part VII, page 3, line 38 was simply an asset reported to me by the Chase Bank as held in the same trust in 2003 but no longer held as an asset in the 2004 report. Again, I trust that it is not incumbent upon me to determine from the trust officer when and how he/she disposed of each asset and the gain or loss to the trust that resulted.

I hope that the above information satisfies your inquiry and serves as an appropriate amendment to my report.
