Instructions: The policy of the Department of Defense is to authorize and encourage the public release of information concerning the Department of Defense consistent with security requirements, and other exemptions to disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act

Security - Reviewing agencies should identify information known to be classified within the meaning of Executive Order 12958 (DoD Regulation 5200.1R) or information which in the judgement of the reviewing agency warrants classification. In the latter case, it is requested that reasons for this judgement be given and recommendations made for appropriate classification.

Policy - Material originated with the Department of Defense for public release should, in addition, be reviewed for conflict with established policies and programs of the Department of Defense or those of the national government. If change is necessary, reviewing agencies are requested to recommend acceptable substitute language where practicable, or specify needed changes in sufficient detail to permit acceptable revision.

Editorial - Editorial review is not a responsibility of the Directorate for Freedom of Information and Security Review and reviewing agencies should not make editorial corrections. However, obvious errors of fact should be indicated.
