Wilco...I've seen [REDACTED] on this - he is aware - and will sit down with him ASAP to conduct the transition.

I do have an assignment for you. It is the BOA issue that we spoke about. I need you to, again, get with [redacted] and start assembling the pieces. I'm getting heat over this from SD and IG, so the sooner you can wrap your arms around it the better.

Nothing here should conflict with your ITI schedule. I do question, however, the dates. Sounds like your availability window to deploy is rapidly closing. Perhaps you should attend an earlier session.

[redacted] – while you both are behind closed doors planning the overthrow of the bureaucracy, I have been working on [redacted]...

Unless either of you have anything better for me to do, I plan to work with [redacted] on the [redacted] (still in progress) and with [redacted] on the [redacted] - this is where I've been for the past hour...and I've got nothing in the way of specific tasking from either of you at this point...

Also – I'd like to plan to attend ITI and finish my "prep" for deployment if I'm supposed to deploy...if you both concur, I'll get signed up for a class sometime in the May/June timeframe.
