Hey, following up on this.

Tuesday feels right to us for this, if it works for EW. We have to decide if it's on background or on the record. My guess is that it would be the former or something like what we did the last time TFG met w/ them.

Adding Erika to the chain.

Thanks Anthony! What were you guys thinking in terms of timing? And would it be on the record, on background, or OTR do you think?

Hey Jen, Good luck today!

When there's a moment, let's regroup on the idea of hosting a joint roundtable w/ left of center bloggers. We're thinking Neal Wolin and Elizabeth Warren would be a powerful duo! Interested in your thoughts.

Thanks
