February 24, 2014

The Honorable John Koskinen
Commissioner
Internal Revenue Service
1111 Constitution Avenue N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20224

Dear Commissioner Koskinen,

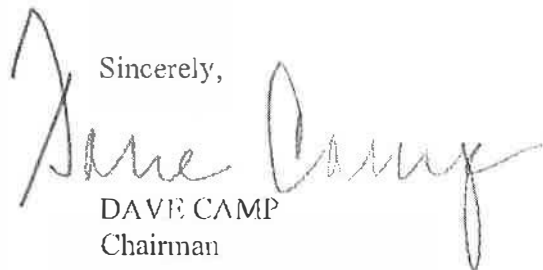

I am writing to demand fulfillment of a document request made pursuant to the Committee on Ways and Means' ongoing investigation of IRS targeting of persons and organizations on the basis of name and policy position.

It has been almost eight months since I wrote Acting Commissioner Werfel to request, among other things, all Lois Lerner e-mails starting from January 1, 2009. To date, the Committee has received only those Lerner documents from this period that include one or more search terms and limited to the determinations process. Given emerging evidence of Lerner's central role in targeting not just through the determinations process, but also in the examinations, appeals and rulemaking processes, all Lerner documents during this time period are pertinent to the investigation.

At a recent Subcommittee on Oversight hearing on January 28, 2014, you promised to work with the Committee to fulfill this months-long request. However, we have yet to receive any additional Lerner documents. If the IRS does not take immediate steps to provide the Committee with documents responsive to this request, I will consider using compulsory process to compel them.

If you have any questions, please contact Ways and Means Committee Staff Director Jennifer Safavian at 202-225-3625.

Sincerely,

DAVE CAMP
Chairman
