VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

This report contains no information on judge's wife, [REDACTED]. Judge and wife moved into a retirement home, the judge in 2006 and the wife in 2008. They have maintained separate financial records, file separate tax returns and have no interest in the estate of the other partner, [REDACTED]. She is no longer competent to handle her affairs and accordingly, Attorney Robert F. Grele of the Law firm of Cummings and Lockwood has been appointed conservator by Northern Fairfield County, CT Probate Court. He now possesses all of [REDACTED] financial records and is making payments with respect to all of her financial obligations. For a report on her assets and income, if you desire that, he can be reached at Two Greenwich Plaza, P.O. Box 2505, Greenwich, CT 06836-2505.

*With respect to Section VI Liabilities, I failed to report 3 liabilities, which originated in 2006 and 2007 by virtue of unsecured loans on credit cards. I mistakenly assumed that liabilities were concerned with mortgages, and other types of secured loans but I should have realized that credit card loans were also required to be reported. This Citicard loan on card number [REDACTED] has remained constant since 2006, since I have paid only the interest on that card loan. The other 2 unreported loans were from Bank of America. They were technically issued on promissory notes instead of on the credit card, but have been administered under the credit card. Number: [REDACTED] is a loan taken out in 2006 in the same amount as the loan from Citibank. However, I paid off on a monthly basis the amortized sum and it dropped below your $10,000 minimum reporting requirement in June of 2011. The promissory note will be fully paid off at the end of this month. Finally, in 2007 Bank of America issued a promissory note loan, administered under the same credit card, but bearing number [REDACTED] taken out in half the sum of the other Bank of America loan, which has been below the $10,000 minimum since June of 2011 and will be paid off in full by the end of next month. Accordingly, the only reportable liability is that disclosed in Section VI to Citibank.
