Re: My Calendar Year 2010 Filing

Dear Mr. Baldock:

This is in response to your letter dated July 25, 2011 concerning my 2010 filing.

With respect to the substantive changes inquired about on page 2, I notice that the four items questioned all relate to stock holdings in the charitable remainder trust of which I am only an income beneficiary. For as many years as I can remember, I have entered information with respect to that trust in the same way. I do not report the gross value at the end of reporting period (Column C) because, as stated in the Additional Information Or Explanations section, assets in that trust do not belong to me and are not properly included in my financial portfolio.

I report income from the charitable remainder trust in Column B because my wife and I receive income from that trust but I submit it would be inappropriate to report the gross value of stocks added to that trust during the relevant calendar year because the value of those stocks is not part of my estate. Thus, I respectfully suggest that the Form be accepted as is because otherwise it would misrepresent my financial standing.

I have noted, as you suggest on page 1 of your letter, that in preparing future reports I am to include all reportable information in Parts I - VII rather than in part VIII. My Judicial Assistant will help me to report the information properly in the future.

If you or somebody at the AO would like to discuss the matter further with me, please call me at 617-748-9247.

Very truly yours,

Nathaniel M. Gorton

NMG/seh
