VIII. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR EXPLANATIONS. (Indicate part of report.)

Part VII. Investments and Trusts

Line 9 - no income received

Lines 11 & 12 - Wachovia Securities accounts transferred to First Clearing - Wells Fargo.

In Part VII, page 4, lines 2-13 Column C was not completed because all of those items of income were from securities that are solely owned by [redacted] and I have no knowledge of the value of those securities. [redacted] had an investment portfolio before we were married. By premarital agreement, she has always maintained her own finances with a separate bank account, her own brokerage account, her own financial adviser and her own books and records. The only asset [redacted] owned is our residence.

We file a [redacted] tax return and I understand that raises a presumption of knowledge of the sources of income that is reported. Our return is prepared by an accountant and each of us separately provides him with the necessary information and supporting papers. I am willing to sign the return in reliance on her honesty in reporting.

[redacted] has provided me with the identification of her sources of investment income to enable me to comply with the disqualification requirements of 28 U.S.C. Sec. 445. My request to provide the additional information necessary to complete Column C in Part VII, page 4, lines 2-12, was denied based on her observation that granting me access to her financial records would be contrary to our pre-nuptial agreement which we have scrupulously followed during the 50 years of our marriage. I respect her decision.

I requested our tax accountant to prepare separate tax returns. He did so and the additional tax that I would be required to pay in a separate return would be a substantial burden. I believe that I have made a good faith effort to comply with the reporting provisions of the law.
