TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Mr. James A. Redden, currently the Attorney General of the State of Oregon, is a voluntary member of the Oregon Public Employes Retirement System. He has been a member since July 1, 1973. He is vested in this joint contributory pension system with employe contributions made by him through January 1, 1979, totalling $15,727.60.

As a result of his service membership and accumulated employe and employer contributions, upon termination of his employment, he would be entitled to draw benefits as early as age 55 (March 1984). At age 60 (normal retirement age) his entitlement to a monthly award would be approximately $765.00 a month for life. Were he to withdraw his employe contributions at termination no further benefits would accrue to him or his survivors.

It should be understood that none of the assets of this trust (presently amounting to 1 billion 700 million dollars - including a stock portfolio valued at over 600 million dollars and consisting of ownership shares in over 280 active American and foreign corporations) - none of these assets are pledged or reachable by any single participating employer or employe.

Under ORS 237.271 the retirement fund is declared to be a trust. It has no other purpose but to fund and thereby provide the benefits owing to vested/participating members. No personal proprietary interest can be held or created therein by reason of employe or employer membership or contribution.

Very Sincerely Yours,

James L. McGoffin
Director
