Re: Judge Thomas M. Rose Calendar Year 2006 Filing
Your Letter of June 8, 2007

Dear Mr. Smith:

Thank you for your inquiry dated June 8, 2007 concerning my annual financial disclosure report filed May 5, 2007.

In reviewing your letter, it would appear your questions concern certain entries on Pages 9 and 11 of Part VII of my disclosure form. Specifically, the majority of your inquiries concern assets that were not previously reflected in my financial disclosures. I will attempt to address these items of inquiry in the order they appeared in your letter.

First, as to the BP PLC ADR sponsored stock shares (Part VII, Page 9, Line 86) and the Persinger Supply Co. stock shares (Part VII, Page 9, Line 90), these stocks were part of [REDACTED] trusts. Upon their deaths, the attorney for the estates, with the consent of the co-trustees, gathered trust assets and formally set up trust accounts containing those assets previously held by [REDACTED]. As my disclosure statement for calendar year 2006 reflects, these trust assets after [REDACTED] death were held in trust with [REDACTED] I as co-trustees. In formulating my 2006 disclosure, I utilized a formal statement from the investment firm of Sweeney Cartwright, issued prior to the disclosure's submittal in May 2006. Unfortunately, the BP and Persinger stock was not recorded in the formal trust accounts until August 2006, after the submittal of 2006 disclosure (see attached statement). These stocks, however, were property of [REDACTED] trusts and were subsequently transferred to me as indicated in this 2007 disclosure statement. The fact that these two stocks were not listed in the 2006 declaration, as assets of [REDACTED] trusts, was an oversight due to the fact they were not reflected by the investment firm's formal trust statements until August 2006.

As for the Sweeney Cartwright Stock Cash Account (Part VII, P. 11, Line 120) this too was not formally reflected by the account until the second half of 2006 and was not contained in the 2006 disclosure statement (see attached statement). This cash account is one that was created by cash monies held in trust accounts of [REDACTED] were collected by the estate attorney and then transferred into the formal trust account in mid 2006 and was later partially transferred to me as reflected in the 2007 disclosure.

As to the KSJ Stables, Llp, this is a new partnership formulated in November 2006, after the 2006 disclosure report.

As to the value method code utilized in Part VII, P. 11, Line 123, Column C(2), I utilized the appraisal value of this property performed by the county auditor in 2002 (see attached letter) when this property was solely in [REDACTED]

In summary with regard to the BP and Persinger stock, these were omitted from the 2006 report due to the fact they had not been included and reported to me by the formal trust accounts until after the 2006 declaration. The Sweeney Cartwright cash account also was not collected and formally reported until mid 2006 and was not included in the 2006 declaration. KSJ Stables was not in existence until November 2006 and therefore not subject to reporting. Finally, the appraisal was conducted of the rental property in 2002.

If this letter does not provide sufficient explanation for your inquiries or you need further information/documentation, please do not hesitate to contact me.
