Dear Elan International LLC,

Following your message of 23rd November 2011 (see below) addressed to our President Dr. Suhair H. Al Qurashi with the invitation to The Women in Public Service Project and Colloquium, which we duly responded to on time and completed the survey, etc., we have not received any acknowledgement or feedback from you or any one else from the State Department.

Recognizing that acceptance of this invitation involves a 10,000 mile journey and other travel logistics and those of participation, etc, it would be very helpful to know the nature of the program and information on other participants who will be attending, in addition to the Secretary of State and the Presidents of five US women's colleges.

Any further information will be very helpful for President Al Qurashi to plan her visit to DC and participate in the Colloquium.

She is currently scheduled to arrive in DC a couple of days before the Colloquium and is already on her way via the UK

Thanks and best regards,

Saleha Abedin
