Case No. F-2014-11262 Segments: ER-0001

Ms. Kate Bailey Judicial Watch 425 Third St. SW, Suite 800 Washington, DC 20024

Dear Ms. Bailey:

I refer to our letter dated November 30, 2015, regarding the release of certain Department of State records under the Freedom of Information Act ("the FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552.

The Department has completed a search of electronic records retired by the Office of the Executive Secretariat. We have completed our review of eleven responsive documents and determined that one may be released in full, and ten may be released with excisions.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made excisions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on each document. All released material is enclosed.

If you have any questions, your attorney may contact Assistant United States Attorney Robert Prince at (202) 305-3654 or robert.prince@usdoj.gov. Please be sure to refer to the case number, shown above, in all communications about this case.

Sincerely,

Susal C. Weerm For

John F. Hackett, Director Office of Information Programs and Services

The Secretary's Call with Libyan General National Congress President Mohammed Magariaf

Please Note: This is not a transcript of this call.

RELEASE IN FULL

Call UP: 09/11 @ 1849

Secretary Clinton: Mr. President.

Libyan General National Congress President Magariaf: Your Excellency.

S: I appreciate you taking my call at this late hour.

M: No problem. It's my duty. -

S: As you know, our diplomatic mission in Benghazi was attacked earlier this evening. We need your immediate help, as one of our diplomats was killed and our Ambassador, who you know, is missing. We have asked for the Libyan government to provide additional security to the compound immediately as there is a gun battle ongoing, which I understand Ansar as-Sharia is claiming responsibility for. We also need you to provide additional capacity for firefighting as there are reports that the principle officer's residence has been bombed or set on fire. We believe that it is important for your government, as well as ours, to condemn this attack in the strongest possible terms and promise that these criminals will be brought to justice. I also need you to help us secure our mission in Tripoli. We have seen serious threats on social media sites, like Facebook, and it is important that your government take all possible measures, in an urgent manner, to secure our facilities. We need you to have people who you are confident in, who will follow your direction, and that your government trusts to secure our compounds.

M: Please accept my condolences for the death of the American at the compound and our sincere apologies for what has happened. We promise to find the criminals and bring them to justice. We will do our utmost to protect American buildings and every American citizen in Libya. We were just in the midst of an emergency meeting with the Prime Minister and all of his deputies to address this situation.

S: If there is anything that you need or that I can do please do not hesitate to call me at any time, day or night.

M: Thank you.

S: Thank you

M: Good night

S: They really represent only a handful of people but in the internet age it only 1.4(D) takes a handful of people to cause big problems.

S: We know that the attack in Libya had nothing to do with the film. It was a planned attack- not a protest.

S: Your not kidding. Based on the information we saw today we believe the group that claimed responsibility for this was affiliated with al Qaeda.

K:

S: We are trying to draw distinctions and communicate that we value our relationship with Egypt and Libya and that these incidents are not representatives of the governments as the videos that were produced here are not representative of us.

S: Yes sir. Our Ambassador in Libya was so involved in the liberation of Libya and was loved by so many there. He really was committed to the freedom of the Libyan people. That's why the President and I decided to send him into Benghazi early on.

Secretary Clinton: Mr. President it's Hillary.

President Karzai: Hello. Good to talk to you Madam Secretary and we want to offer our condolences on the loss of life in Libya.

S: Thank you so much. As the President said we are dealing with a dynamic and serious security 1.4(B) situation in Libya and protest in Cairo and there are those who are trying to stir up problems in the region. We appreciate your statement in response to the video. Especially, the point that the people that make these kind of videos are a fringe group.

I appreciate what you all are doing to manage the Afghan relationship in the days ahead. On those points we are very grateful. At some point, when we have a chance for a leisurely discussion, we need to talk about religious feelings and insults and defamation. This is going 1.4(B) to be a vicious cycle. I will put that on my list of conversations to have with you when we have more 1.4(D) time to reflect. I wanted to raise issue of the detention facilities in Parwan.

Our goal is to maintain the best relationship with you and your government and the people of Tunisia. We have to get past this incident without any other problems or attacks or incidents that would lead to death or injury and we want to work with you and not be deterred by the actions of a mob. Thank you very much Prime Minister for letting me explain this to you.

J: Thank you very much and I would like to extend my condolences for the unfortunate incidents in Benghazi. I also reiterate my condemnation of these terrorist actions. We are very sorry for what happened and we will find who was responsible. We are sorry for what happened at the school and the embassy and we will not allow anyone to be hurt. We understand your request and appreciated it. I am at the airport now, I have cut my airport vacation short, so I can go home and deal with this situation in Tunisia. Please allow me some hours to get home and to meet with my leadership team about your concerns. 1.4(B)

S: I'm alright, my friend. I just wanted to thank you for your support at this difficult time and express my gratitude to Under Secretary Sinirlioglu, the Turkish Ambassador to Libya, and the Consul General in Benghazi, Ali Said Akin, 1.4(B)

Thank you also for your strong public statement condemning the attacks. 1.4(D) Obviously your voice carries weight, and I appreciate the Prime Minister's comments. It's been ^{B1}ery difficult week, as you can imagine.

Davutoglu: I'm calling to express our solidarity and condolences for this great loss. There is no excuse or justification for such violence. Our position is clear and we made several statements to show our solidarity. If there's anything I can do, please let me know 1.4(B) statements and underline our position that no situation could be made for such violent action. Th^{B1}, is a clear provocation as you described but we should not be provoked by these types of movies and we will continue to make the necessary statements. Prime Minister Erdogan will speak with President Obama Tuesday. He also sends his best greetings and condolences to you as well, Hillary, and to your staff. We have full solidarity with you and the United States.

S: That means a great deal to me. Please thank the Prime Minister. I recall very well that Turkey has been by our side since March 2011,

The only other thing I wanted to mention is, I sent Deputy Secretary Bill Burns to Ankara to chair the second meeting of the Syria Working Group, but it was necessary for him to travel to Germany and meet with our staff evacuated from Libya and accompany the remains of the four Americans killed in Benghazi. I know Ambassador Robert Ford and Assistant Secretary Derek Chollet led the delegation

Our close coordination is more important than ever in light of the attack in Benghazi. I'm looking forward to seeing you in New York so we can go into depth on where we are at with all the developments in the region.

FM Amr: I'm fine, thank you.

S: Thank you for the opportunity to talk to you about recent events in Cairo. I know President Obama spoke with the President [Morsi]. I had the opportunity to talk to the Prime Minister. We obviously need to count on you and your security forces to control these demonstrations and prevent outbreaks of violence in order to ensure the integrity of our diplomatic facilities and the safety of the American and Egyptian citizens who work there. 1.4(B)

I am especially sad we had a very successful investment visit led by my deputy, Tom Nides, and on the very day they left this series of incidents began to unfold. President Morsi's statements condemning the attacks in Benghazi and elsewhere, and firmly telling Egyptians not to engage in unlawful violent criminal acts are important,

1.4(B) 1.4(D) B1

FM Amr: You can be sure of that. I'm sorry I didn't come back to you earlier. I was traveling. But I arranged with the Prime Minister, but we were in Rome and Brussels. I wanted to express my condolences for the regrettable loss of life in Benghazi. I was delayed but please accept my condolences to the government, the people, the families. This was uncalled for and regrettable. We hope this will not be repeated anywhere. This is against all our principles and our values, you can be sure of that. Morsi said it more than once. He condemned it unequivocally and was very clear in his public statements. I assure you this message will continue to be sent and we will publicize it. I assure you of our utter commitment to the safety of all U.S. government and all foreign government personnel. As you said, we had a very successful meeting with businesspeople and it was regrettable this came on the heels of a very successful meeting. You can be assured of our intentions and our determination to prevent the appearance of any acts of violence. What happened in Benghazi was very regrettable.

S: Thank you for that on a personal level and on behalf of your government. That is very important for me. I also am aware it's been quite challenging for the government to reassert civil security after the revolution you have faced, 1.4(B)

1.4(B) 1.4(D) B1

FM Amr: Thank you very much for this, Hillary. We will work together and cooperate with you on this.

I know you had a clear statement about it a couple days ago. We appreciate that. Ordinary people in the United States, like ordinary people here, are against incitement. I don't know who benefits from this incitement. This is against all tenets of Islam which, you know, the religion does not call for this. But anyway, we need us to be united to condemn these acts on both sides. Incitement doesn't serve anyone. Freedom of speech, which we all want, when used for incitement works against all people.

S: As you said Mohamed, I have repeatedly, as has the President and other officials in our government, deplored not only the content of this stupid, very offensive film, but also intentional efforts to denigrate the religious beliefs of others. This runs counter to American history and the Constitution. But we've made clear that violent attacks are never justified in any religion.

but we have to exercise more self-discipline and also governments must be clear in rejecting any kind of offensive speech and stand for our values. That has to be the clear line drawn, because otherwise we'll be in a vicious downward circle against everyone who has ever felt offended, particularly on the Internet, where you can find anything deeply offensive. I think the double message of us deploring the content of such an offensive film or any kind of statement or content is really appropriate. Equally, I think it's appropriate to say we can't return offensive speech with violence. That's the message that has to be communicated.

FM Amr: Of course, that is what we are doing. Those coincide. They are looking for this kind of reaction. It's playing into their hands.

S: I think that's right. Anytime this happens, there's someone who hopes to profit from it. Government and leaders have to point out we are bigger than this.

I hope we will clearly and consistently hear from the highest levels of the Egyptian government.

FM Amr: I agree with you. Calm is prevailing in Cairo and I hope this will continue in other countries also.

Secretary Clinton: Hello Laurent, it's Hillary.

Foreign Minister Fabius: How are you?

S: It's been a tough week.

FM Fabius: Yes. I wanted to call you to tell you of our solidarity at this tough period of time.

S: I very much appreciate your statement of condolence and the statement by President Hollande. We felt the solidarity.

FM Fabius: It's quite normal because we're friends. It could've happened to us as well. I'm in touch with the new Prime Minister in Libya. I think from what he said the government was correct [inaudible].

S: I was pleased and grateful to see the announcement by the Grand Mufti of Saudi Arabia strongly condemning these attacks.

F: It is kind of you to mention this but it's our duty- the duty of everyone. If diplomats are not safe how can international relations be worked out.

S: That's right. Without security, they can't attract investment, tourism, or any of the other benefits of their revolution, if they don't fulfill that responsibility.

F: Indeed.

S: I hope we see more responsibility and better coordination going forward

F: We are talking to them now and we know they are under various pressures, external and internal but there are no excuses for what has happened.

S: It was so wonderful to hear your voice and I do hope to see you soon, either here or somewhere else.

F: I will do my best to make that happen.

S: Take care now.

F: Take care,

S: Bye

Secretary Clinton: Hi. It's Hillary Clinton.

Prime Minister-elect Abu Shagur: Hello. How are you?

S: I'm fine. Let me thank you for the strong condemnation of the attack and all of the support that we received. It was very important to us and represents the strength of our relationship.

AS: I wanted to thank you so much for that and reiterate that we want to continue to strengthening our relationship. We can't allow this killing to stop our relationship. I offer my condolences to you but at the same time to the Libyan people. Chris was a friend of ours and you can't imagine the sadness felt all over the country following his death; he was friend of ours and of all of the Libyan people. I personally lost a friend in the death of Chris Stevens and we are so sorry for him and his other colleagues. This was a criminal act and is not reflective of our values and we will do everything to bring these people to justice. We value your support for our revolution and everything that you have done afterwards. This is very important for us. We are partners and we don't want this to weaken our relationship.

S: That is how we see it and want to move forward as well.

AS: Chris is a hero for us. Throughout the revolution he was in Benghazi and the Libyan people feel like they lost one of their own. He did so much for us. Chris and his colleagues.

S: I appreciate that and your attention to this. We want to work with you on all that you are confronting. The Libyan people have high expectations of your government and on the drafting of the constitution and improvements in security. We want to work with you on establishing institutions that are responsive and forming a cabinet so there is a clear sense of responsibility and you can establish order. 1.4(B)

 S: I want to reinforce that. We stand ready to help your government. After 42 years of tyranny, we really want you to succeed, as you know. I know you lived in our country for many years and that you fought long and hard and went through some terrible times to help bring about better opportunities for the Libyan people and we want to be able to help with that.

AS: I spent 32 years enjoying the freedom in the United States and I value that time very much. There is so much good will in the world towards the Libyan people and our revolution and I don't want to squander that. I always say the Libyan revolution is the first time that you have seen so many countries come to support the oppressed. Genuine relationships were strengthened based on the support of our cause. Really, we had so much help in getting rid of him and that hasn't happened before in history.

AS: Yes. We look forward to working with you to make this transition a success.

S: I hope you will take me up on my offer to call and reach out on any matter, at any time, when you think we can be of assistance.

AS: I promise to do that. I consider you a friend and a partner.

S: Will I be able to see you in New York at UNGA?

AS: but we B6 will find another opportunity to see one another and hopefully you will come and visit us also. Please thank the President for us. We were very pleased with your public statement and his showing of continued support for our new government and the Libyan people.

S: We want to continue to be helpful and I too look forward to seeing you soon.

AS: Thank you.

S: Thank you. Good bye.

AS: Good bye.
