Thank you.

The Secretary's Call with South African Minister for International Relations and Cooperation Maite Nkoana-Mashabane March 12, 2011, Time TBD

Purpose of Call: To urge the South African government to delay Jean-Bertrand Aristide's return to Haiti. His return amidst the final round of Presidential and Parliamentary elections might lead to chaos and affect the legitimate outcome of the electoral process. This call is also an opportunity to urge South Africa to speak out in support of the African Union position on Cote d'Ivoire and urging Gbabgo to step aside.

Talking Points:

Aristide's Possible Return to Haiti: We are concerned about the possibility of former Haitian President Jean-Bertrand Aristide's return to Haiti before the completion of its Presidential and Parliamentary election.

- -- Final second-round voting in what has been a challenging electoral process is scheduled for completion next Sunday, March 20. Final results are expected to be announced on April 16.
- -- Aristide's return before this process is complete, and particularly during the next week, runs the very real risk of nullifying a democratic election that will usher in the first democratic transition of power in the country's history permitting Haitians to elect the leadership they needs. Aristide's return during this period jeopardizes not only the stability of the country, i

- i, I seek your help in preventing Wikileaks from undermining our mutual national interests. The President and I are committed to deepening our bilateral relationship.
- i, (If raised) If Saudi Arabia Requests the Relevant Cables: I will have our ambassador come in to brief you on specifics.

Background: King Abdullah arrived in New York November 22 for treatment of what the Saudi government has described as a slipped disk and adjacent blood clot.

Dear Secretary Clinton,

We have attended the Clinton Global Initiative now for a few years and feel it is an important gathering of some of the finest and most important people thinking about International Aid. We do, however, feel that women's issues have not gotten the attention or the placement that they deserve. We are hoping you might consider helping us "rock the boat" a little bit this year.

Just when you think the level of political discourse could not sink any lower Michelle Bachman and her cohorts take it to a new extreme. I have to admit I am speechless. And then she has the audacity to issue a statement saying her remarks are being distorted!! I did try to email her to express my outrage but apparently the House system has a filter which only allows communication from constituents. Strange way to run a democracy. Guess I will have to resort to snail mail.

I did send an email to Senator McCain thanking him for his statement. I told him I remembered he did a similar thing for David Ifshin when David and President Clinton were being attacked for David's stance as a student on the Viet Nam war. Obviously I don't agree with him on most things but he really does rise to the occasion at times like these.

Take care and please give my best to Huma.

Dear Hillary,

Not sure if Kenya is on your itinerary, but the Acumen East African Fellows program is incredible -- would love to tell you about it. Definitely worth meeting them if you will be there, because this is a very significant investment in building human capital, and networks that cross the economic, tribal, cultural and other divides that hobble inclusive development. It was a big gamble to organize this, but the first cohort has completed their year with amazing results.

I'm actually thinking of going on this trip -- taking over your travel shoes as you hang them up for awhile! Just wish I could have traveled with you while you've been at State, but look forward to times when your life is not so completely officially orchestrated!

Hillary-

It was great to see you for a bit at Thanksgiving and hope we can find some time soon to catch up.

I am writing to ask if you'd be interested in speaking at the Truman National Security Project's annual conference from May 4th to the 6th? It is an incredible organization and network of our nation's young foreign and domestic policy leaders (I am a little biased as a Truman fellow). This group is filled with smart, pragmatic, and idealistic young leaders from across the nation and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to be a part of it. I think you will really enjoy getting to spend a little time with some of them.

I've attached a letter with more info from Rachel Kleinfeld, the CEO and founder, who I think you've met a few times before.

Hope your trip is going well and know that you make all of us so proud.

Love and best, Zach

On Eric Goosby memo, haven't seen. Will track down.

We have discussed the idea of taking business delegations to Cambodia, Korea and Vietnam. As you know, jake wants to take them on many trips this year. Assume you endorse.

We don't have locked dates for Dip Center. Aiming for April and we will start identifying and showing you. Will be spread out over a couple of months.

Already offered letter for ______'s birthday party. Will see if they want video too.

On _____, she has begged us too but I don't think you can go if there's even a 1 percent chance that _____ will be there. As you know, they are pushing hard for you to see him and have hosted him several times in DC. We should discuss.

For UAE, as you know, back in Jan we offered to do it this spring. They cannot do it before the summer and at this point, we have no natural trip to add it to. My thought was to do it if we ever ended up in Egpyt so its been on the backburner and last I left it with Yousef, it would be post-september. Ill work on it.

Also, closed loop with melanne after your bilat with jahjaga that you will do her womens conf in the fall. and told melanne to confirm the mongolia womens conf in conjuction with community of Agreed. Hosting a meeting here makes sense, make sure DC sees your continued association with the issue. But that doesn't preclude an event in either Sweden or Norway, both member countries, both recent financial contributors. For no good reason, I'd vote for Norway since Sweden just hosted the latest gathering, but I think we already have the GHI speech in Oslo.

Dear Secretary Clinton,

We have attended the Clinton Global Initiative now for a few years and feel it is an important gathering of some of the finest and most important people thinking about International Aid. We do, however, feel that women's issues have not gotten the attention or the placement that they deserve. We are hoping you might consider helping us "rock the boat" a little bit this year.

I know that the staff at CGI is hoping to do a plenary with you this year on Design and Urbanization and while this may be worthwhile, we are wondering if you would consider joining with us to make a counter proposal for a different plenary that would be much more meaningful.

There is a great deal of energy at CGi about women, but generally this energy is confined to issue areas that are, for want of a better phrase, "safe." What is more, we have found there to be a distinct lack of support for any and all discussion of Women's Rights specifically. It would be amazing if we could bring a plenary to this years's conference with you and Leymah and some other high profile people (Zainab Salbi I am sure would be glad to do it, as would Ashley Judd and/or Ben Affleck, either of whom would be great) to talk about why none of this talk will get us anywhere unless we talk about Women's

Could you please flag this for Cheryl if she is tied up this morning and not checking e-mail regularly? Air Force indicating they essentially will have to shut down flight ops at Andrews from late afternoon Sunday until Wednesday morning due to the storm.

Many thanks -- JB

Dear Cheryl,

Two quick things beside a thank you for your work in the world:

- [1] John Doar's former colleagues are preparing a 2-day event for his 90th birthday, Oct. 27-28, at Justice and Sidwell Friends. Please let Hillary know in case she'd like to be involved somehow. I know she admires Doar from her work on the Nixon impeachment committee.
- [2] Do you know the proper channel at the White House to suggest Doar for the Medal of Freedom? (One of my former co-authors, Bill Russell, received it this year.) If so, I'd appreciate any tip on the process. Plenty of people working on the 90th would gather info if necessary.

Best,

Taylor Branch

Hillary is on the right track -- to see if the Burmese government is serious about reforms. The question is who is the real decision maker. The civilian government is on a long leash held by the "retired" military leaders. Than Shwe will "allow" Thein Sein's initiatives so long as it suits him.

"Face" is extremely important to the Burmese. They do not like to be "lectured" to, even in private.

Any measures that will make the daily lives of the people better will be welcomed by all sides. The ordinary citizens need and want relief before political freedom or democracy.

The ethnic minorities conflicts are historic and may remain a continuing issue with ebbs and flows.

My fondest regards to Hillary. Please let me know if she needs anything else.

Thanks,

LAGGII ILD	U.S. Department of State	Case No. F-2015-06322	DOC NO. C06429369	Date: 12/21/2017

Elections: In accordance with Kazakhstan's Constitution, President Nazarbayev signed a decree November 15 to dissolve the lower house of parliament (Mazhilis) and to schedule elections for January 15. Nazarbayev announced in November that Kazakhstan needs a multiparty Mazhilis and a renewed government to accomplish wider modernization. This will be the first Mazhilis elections held under Kazakhstan's revised election code, which mandates representation for a second party if there are not at least two parties that exceed the required 7 percent threshold. The elections are expected to usher in Kazakhstan's first multiparty parliament.

Zhanaozen: At least 16 people died and over 100 were hospitalized due to unrest that began as authorities were preparing for a December 16 independence day celebration on the central square of the oil town of Zhanaozen. Both the government of Kazakhstan and an independent NGO eyewitness maintain that a group of protestors (possibly organized by overseas opposition groups), separate from the oil workers who have been on strike, started the violence. Additional violence claiming at least one life broke out on December 17 when protestors blocked several freight and passenger trains in the nearby village of Shetpe. President Nazarbayev declared a State of Emergency for Zhanaozen and established a commission headed by Deputy Prime Minister Shukeyev to investigate the incident and make recommendations to address underlying socio-economic factors. Although the situation has stabilized, the government extended the State of Emergency to January 31 and – consistent with the constitutional provision regarding regions where there is unrest - canceled the parliamentary (though not local) elections for that region, affecting 50,000 voters (out of 7 million or so). After A/S Blake and Amb. Fairfax urged reconsideration, President Nazarbayev announced January 9 that elections would take place nationwide on January 15, including Zhanaozen, a decision that was confirmed by the Constitutional Court January 11.

NDI: Ambassador Idrissov flagged in his January 11 discussion with Acting A/S Pyatt the Kazakh government's concerns about the activities of NDI and IRI, which he said were becoming "too active" in their engagement on social networking and "Arab Spring" type activities. He added that these concerns had been raised with Embassy Astana by the MFA: on January 11, Kazakh officials alleged to our DCM that the purpose of many U.S. policies in Kazakhstan, including support of organizations like NDI, is to foment revolution against the government. Pyatt told Idrissov that we welcomed the Kazakh government's commitment to transparency in the elections (and the investigation of the Zhanaozen events), but did not see anything irregular in the role/actions of NDI/IRI and urged them not to believe everything they read on the internet (local press propaganda often targets U.S. NGO activities in Central Asia). The Kazakh government may also be reacting to the activities of a former NDI local employee who has been active in opposition efforts but no longer has any connection with NDI. During a January 12 meeting with Kazykhanov, Ambassador Fairfax strongly refuted claims that NDI was engaged in improper or subversive activities. Kazykhanov expressed GOKZ support for NDI's work in Kazakhstan, and admitted that the Kazakh security services (and not the media) had been the real source of the accusations made against NDI to the MFA. Kazykhanov agreed to have Kazakh Ambassador Idrissov meet with NDI Director Wollack to discuss further any concerns. Kazakhstan has suffered several small bombings (including its first car bomb ever) in the past year that – in combination with unrest in the oil patch, as well as events in the Arab world and Russia – has made it particularly skittish about stability. President Nazarbayev said January 11 that he thinks countries that have experienced such "coups" have gone "backwards" 10-15 years economically. (Note: IRI left Kazakhstan last spring.)

RELEASE IN PART B5,B6

Basically a philanthropic organization started in 1986 for women and run by women. Gives millions of dollars each year in grants to NYC (must be within the 5 boroughs) based organizations to help lower income women and girls – specifically reproductive rights, anti violence and economic security. Current president (as we know!) is Diana Taylor. Their mission statement -- The New York Women's Foundation is a voice for women and a force for change. We are a cross-cultural alliance of women catalyzing partnerships and leveraging human and financial capital to achieve sustained economic security and justice for women and girls. With fierce determination, we mobilize hearts, minds and resources to create an equitable and just future for women, families and communities in New York City.

Subject: Truman National Security Project

Hillary-

It was great to see you for a bit at Thanksgiving and hope we can find some time soon to catch up.

I am writing to ask if you'd be interested in speaking at the Truman National Security Project's annual conference from May 4th to the 6th? It is an incredible organization and network of our nation's young foreign and domestic policy leaders (I am a little biased as a Truman fellow). This group is filled with smart, pragmatic, and idealistic young leaders from across the nation and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to be a part of it. I think you will really enjoy getting to spend a little time with some of them.

I've attached a letter with more info from Rachel Kleinfeld, the CEO and founder, who I think you've met a few times before.

Hope your trip is going well and know that you make all of us so proud.

Love and best, Zach

Subject: howard paster- we are putting this out

"Hillary and I are deeply saddened by the passing of our good friend and colleague Howard Paster. We will remember Howard for his passion and candor, and his dedication to public service. As my Assistant for Congressional Relations, Howard made a tremendous difference in ensuring that my administration was able to carry out some of our most crucial initiatives.

As Chief Operating Officer for Hillary in 2008, Howard worked tirelessly and gave generously of his talents. We were thrilled to see him elected President of the Little League Foundation in 2002. We are thankful for Howard's friendship and we will miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with Gail and their family."
