Q: Would you have been prepared, if asked by the Jones lawyers, would you have been prepared to answer a question directly asked about oral sex performed on you by Monica Lewinsky?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: If the Judge had required me to answer it, of course, I would have answered it. And I would have answered it truthfully, if I –

Q: By the way, do you believe that the –

PRESIDENT CLINTON: – had been required.

Q: – Jones litigants had the same understanding of sexual relations that you claim you have?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: I don't know what their understanding was, sir. My belief is that they thought they'd get this whole thing in, and that they were going to – what they were trying to do is do just what they did with Gennifer Flowers. They wanted to find anything they could get from me or anyone else that was negative, and then they wanted to leak it to hurt me in the press, which they did even though the Judge ordered them not to.

So, I think their –

Q: Wouldn't it – I'm sorry.

PRESIDENT CLINTON: I think their position, Mr. Bennett – you asked the question – their position was, we're going to cast the widest
