Much of the evidence will never be known because many people who were witnesses or who possessed evidence of some kind suffered mysterious deaths prior to being able to come forward. The list compiled here is not complete and is not detailed. It is presented to show how extensive it is and to illustrate that all these deaths could not be just coincidence.

Mary Mahoney—former White House intern gunned down in a coffee shop. Nothing was taken. It was suspected that she was about to testify about sexual harassment in the White House.

Vincent Foster—former White House Counsel, found dead of a gunshot wound to the head and ruled a suicide. He had significant knowledge of the Clintons' financial affairs and was a business partner with Hillary. If the Clintons are guilty of the crimes they are accused of by Larry, Vincent Foster would have detailed knowledge of those crimes.

C. Victor Raiser, II—former National Finance Co-Chairman of Clinton for President, and Montgomery Raiser, his son. Both died in a suspicious private plane crash in Alaska. No cause determined. Raiser was considered to be a major player on the Clinton team.

Paul Tully—DNC Political Director, was found dead in a Little Rock hotel room. No cause was ever determined and no autopsy was allowed. Tully was a key member of the damage control squad and came up with some of the Clinton strategies.

Ed Willey—Clinton fund raiser. Found in the woods in Virginia with a gunshot wound to the head. Ruled a suicide.

Hershell Friday—Clinton fund-raiser. His plane exploded.

Jerry Parks—former security team member for Governor Clinton. Prior to his death he had compiled an extensive file on Clinton's activities. His family had reported being followed and his home was broken into just before being gunned down at a deserted intersection.

James Bunch—reported to have possessed a little black book of people who visited prostitutes. He died of a gunshot, which was ruled a suicide.

John Wilson—former Washington, D.C. council member. Had ties to Whitewater. Died of a very suspicious hanging suicide.

Kathy Ferguson—former wife of Arkansas State Trooper Danny Ferguson, the co-defendant with Bill Clinton in the Paula Jones lawsuit. Found dead in her living room of a gunshot wound to the head. Ruled a suicide. Interestingly, her packed suitcases seemed to indicate she was about to go somewhere.

Bill Shelton—Arkansas state trooper and fiancé of Kathy Ferguson. Allegedly committed suicide by shooting himself at her grave.

Gandy Baugh—attorney for Dan Lasater in a financial misconduct case. Supposedly jumped out the window of a tall building to commit suicide.

Dr. Donald Rogers—dentist. Killed in a suspicious plane crash on his way to an interview with reporter Ambrose Evans-Pritchard to reveal information about Clinton.

Stanley Huggins—lawyer investigating Madison Guaranty. Suicide. His extensive report has never been released.

Florence Martin—Accountant for the CIA and had information on the Barry Seal case. Three gunshot wounds to the head.

Suzanne Coleman—reportedly had an affair with Clinton. Was seven months pregnant at the time she was found dead of a gunshot wound to the back of the head, ruled suicide.

Paula Grober—Clinton's interpreter for the deaf. Traveled with Clinton from 1978 until her death in 1992 in a one-car accident. There were no witnesses.

Paul Wilcher—attorney investigating corruption. He had investigated federal elections, drug and gun smuggling through Mena, the Waco incident, and had just delivered a lengthy report to Janet Reno. He died in his home of unknown causes.

Jon Parnell Walker—RTC investigator who mysteriously fell to his death from an apartment balcony.

Ron Brown—former DNC Chairman, Commerce Secretary. Reported to have died in a plane crash, but new evidence reveals he may have been shot in the head. He was being investigated by a special investigator and was about to be indicted with 54 others. He spoke publicly of his willingness to "make a deal" with the prosecutors. He is reported to have told Clinton that he would make a deal with the prosecutors to save himself a few days before the fatal trip. He was not supposed to be on the flight but was asked to go at the last minute.

Barbara Wise—Commerce Department secretary. Worked with Ron Brown and John Huang and had extensive knowledge of their activities. Found dead in her locked office the day after Thanksgiving. It was ruled a suicide. Interestingly, she was found partially clothed, bruised, and in a pool of blood.

Charles Meissner—Assistant Secretary of Commerce. John Huang was given a special security clearance by Meissner. Shortly thereafter, he died in the crash of a small plane.

Kevin Ives and Don Henry—seventeen-year-old boys who apparently saw something related to drugs in Mena by accident late at night. Officially ruled an accidental death on the train tracks, but evidence shows they died before being placed on the tracks—one of a crushed skull and the other of a knife wound in the back.

Keith Koney—had information on the Ives and Henry deaths. Died in a motorcycle accident with reports of a high-speed car chase involved.

Keith McKaskle—had information on the Ives and Henry deaths. Stabbed to death.

Gregory Collins—had information on the Ives and Henry deaths. Gunshot wound to the head.

Jeff Rhodes—had information on the Ives and Henry and McKaskle deaths. Tortured, mutilated, shot, body burned in a dumpster.

James Milam—had information on the Ives and Henry deaths. He was decapitated. The coroner ruled death due to natural causes.

Jordan Kettleson—had information on the Ives and Henry deaths. Found shot in the front seat of his pick up truck.

Dr. Stanley Heard—Chair, National Chiropractic Health Care Advisory Committee. He personally treated Clinton's mother, stepfather, and brother. His personal small plane developed problems so he rented another. Fire broke out in flight and he crashed.

Steve Dickson—attorney for Heard. Died in same plane crash.

John Hillier—video journalist and investigator. He helped to produce the documentaries "Circle of Power," and "The Clinton Chronicles." He mysteriously died in a dentist's chair for no apparent reason.

Maj. Gen. William Robertson, Col. William Densberger, Col. Robert Kelly, Spec. Gary Rhodes, Steve Willis, Robert Williams, Conway LeBleu, Todd McKeenan, Sgt. Brian Haney, Sgt. Tim Sabel, Maj. William Barkley, Capt. Scott Reynolds—all former Clinton bodyguards who are dead.

Gary Johnson—former attorney for Larry Nichols, severely beaten and left for dead.

Dennis Patrick—had millions of dollars laundered through his account at Lasater & Co. without his knowledge. There have been several attempts on his life, all unsuccessful.

L.J. Davis—reporter. While investigating the Clinton scandals he was attacked in his hotel room and his notes were taken. He survived.

Larry Nichols—former marketing director of ADFA. Responsible for bringing forth more evidence and witnesses on Clinton corruption than any other source. Very public about his claims against Clinton. He has suffered six beatings, arrest on trumped up charges, and a near arrest.
