I spoke to DEA and FBI. The documents they generate are controlled respectively by DEA and FBI; not State Department. There may be some exceptions; for example, the memo regarding the use of armored cars that the Ambassador and RSO signed.

Please note, FBI and DEA use FBI and DEA e-mail accounts and servers. DOJ/OIA and DOJ/OPDAT use the State Department e-mail systems.

I participated in a conference call today with the DCM, Alex Lee (State - Director of Mexican Affairs); Colleen Huey (State - Deputy Director Mexican Affairs); Matt Rooney (State - OLA); and Mike Glover (Political Section at the Embassy). The topic was the letter from Senator Grassley to Secretary Clinton.
