i am furious at doj's lack of punch on this stuff i am chomping on the bit to help your husband smash back.

the line on fast and furious at this point ought to be "senator, you're well beyond investigating mistakes--we've stipulated to them and corrected. youre at the point of undermining a massive investigation into drug and gunrunning. its unsafe and dangerous to american lives to politicize and interfere with an investigatino into mexican drug gangs. period".

and get larry thompson and louis freeh and other R law enforcment people to agree.

stop fking lawyering the matter and treat it like the PR issue it is.
and who gives a fk what the WH thinks at this point [to a point]. if he's mad, get mad. be mad. fight back.

but maybe you were referring to something mundane...:)
