thought he was flat. said he plans to issue subpoenas to DOJ officials - not clear who -- could be as early as this week.

he lobbed the same "who knew what, when" accusation as far as approach of his investigation. when asked about your response, said he took you at your word. wallace did a decent job trying to press him on his accusations in light of your response re timing becoming aware of F and F and in Wide Receiver. issa went back to the lame - well, he should have known.

working on getting transcript -
