DKB,

I know that you are in Tucson today, but there's a CNN crew in town doing a bunch of different stories and they would like an interview with you regarding the Fast and Furious ATF case. They will still be here tomorrow if you want to do it in the morning (earlier the better, they say). The Reporter, Casey Wian, said he realizes that you might be constrained talking about all aspects of the case, but wants to know in general about the difficulties and challenges in prosecuting gun trafficking cases under current law. DP

DP

It would be a taped piece, not a live stand up. I'll get back to them with whatever you'd like to do.
