FYI,
I did indicate to AP reporter (Josh) that the Republic story -- at least the portion regarding who's in custody and status of the illegal immigrants who were questioned -- is accurate, but "on background" which means it's still un-sourced and therefore unprintable per their requirements.

Robbie,
The AP is wanting clarification on those who are in custody. As you know our investigation is on going. There was an Arizona Republic story recently in which a "source" was referenced advising no one has been charged in the Terry matter and none of the individuals originally arrested are in custody. Is there any thought about clarifying the matter?
