FYI

So, obviously I told this CNN reporter that it was highly unlikely I'd have anything helpful for her. But this was interesting. She said she got called by an "affiliate" in southern AZ who must be listening to a scanner traffic and heard the information stated below. She wanted to know specifically if there had been a new arrest in the BP Agent Terry case.

This is the little shard of information that came our way. If you can illuminate this that would be great.

Looking for info on the apprehension of a Vanessa – surname unknown, who was part of an ATL broadcasted on AZ DPS Districts East, 6, 8, 9 frequencies.

The ATL described initially looking for an Silver H2 Hummer, with Mexico plate VZJ3556.

This was around 8pm Tuesday night, by 9pm a new ATL was issued stating that Vanessa was taken into custody at the Nogales POE in a Silver Tacoma pickup truck. The broadcast continued with 2 h/m's in an H2 wanted in connection with a murdered BP agent.
