I'll just answer Dennis and Pat. Don't worry about it. I'll copy you.

Understand. It sounds like the AUSA that was called was the wrong one. Let me find out who the right person is.

The Mexicans are making noises that they are opening a criminal investigation of ATF for fast and furious and want to send an MLAT in aid of their investigation. I am trying to see if we can turn that off before it happens, but in order to figure out if we can do that or how, I would need to know what the investigation was actually about, and the AUSA would be a good place to start, I would think, and would then discuss any efforts in that regard with the AUSA. Tony and Chris indicated that Josh was the AUSA.

Or we can just ignore this and let it turn into a bigger mess than it needs to be. I consider the aversion of disasters as well as having to resolve them when they happen as part of my job.

Molly -- I don't know what exactly is going on here (and can't listen to the voice mail that is supposed to be attached to this email), but Dennis Burke indicates that John Beasley from OIA called an AUSA in his office to talk about Fast and Furious (and that AUSA is not involved with Fast and Furious). Do you know whether this is correct and, if so, what the call was about?

Dennis: I will call John Beasley, who called from IA, to speak to Josh about Fast and Furious. Has he reached you? Thanks. JPC -----Original Message-----

Hi, Dennis and Pat-

This voicemail is concerning. Please take a listen. Apparently, I received this voicemail at the direction of the director of OIA in Washington DC. They want to talk to me about "Fast and Furious."

Cheers,
Josh
