Jason Foster from Senator Grassley's staff had left me a voicemail on Friday. I returned the call today. During the call, Jason told me that the Senator and the AG had spoken earlier today and that the Senator had told the AG that, in order to support cloture, he would require the production of documents today. I pressed Jason on which documents he would require production of and Jason pointed me to Senator Grassley's Feb. 16 letter, a copy of which is attached.

There are four categories of documents listed. Three of them are fairly narrow. We are working to identify the responsive docs.

Jason made clear that a promise to produce docs is insufficient -- he needs to actually see the paper today.
