Subject: Document Review in DC

Ann and Pat:

The DAGs office wants an AZ lawyer in DC to review documents from F & F that they are planning to disclose. Mike is the lucky winner and he is already in Columbia, so he's halfway there.

Mike:

Dennis confirmed that you can come back on Tuesday. You should feel free to pressure our colleagues to work faster so that you can be done by then, but if it is not complete, Pat will travel to DC on Monday so he can pick up where you left off on Tuesday morning.

You should feel free to have any personal items fed-exed to you. I think they can have a box to your hotel by tomorrow morning.

I let Chuck know that you will be coming back Tuesday, so he should be making the arrangements now.

Your contact in DC is Matt Axelrod at 202.305.0273 office. I am trying to find his cell number now. Dennis is talking to the DAG right now. I'll update you with any new information.

Thanks for taking one for the team. Rachel
