What statement is that -- I have a draft that is still being reviewed. Please give me a call.

Just to be clear, this should go tomorrow, not today. We sent a statement for the hearing record earlier today.

Here's the redline of the redline -- although some redlines didn't show up -- so I added comments in the margin.

Faith -- do you have a redline of this? It would expedite review. We can talk about timing. Of course Paul and Ron should review, but everyone needs to review off the same draft and we should be able to see suggested changes. Otherwise too hard to keep straight.....

Stuart, here's the revised draft – Caroline has still not returned – [DP]
[DP] Here's a clean version, but I think that Paul and Ron should review it. Were you thinking that we'd send it today? The hearing really doesn't warrant that, although we need to get out the text that was stripped from our Friday letter, [DP]
[DP] Thanks. FB

F -- ok but we need to get your final cut by 3:15 pm at the latest, to get all necessary reviews done. Thanks.

Stuart, I've sent someone else to the hearing and stayed to work on the letter – all fine. The doc has been restructured per your guidance, but there are some problems with some of the edits – I have a call into Caroline and will send this to her separately. Just talked with Tracy – not clear that today's hearing will get much traction. Here is the current version, but I will keep working on it if that's OK. Thanks. FB

To see if you received our edits – and if so, where things stand. Know you will be tied up at the hearing, so it would be great if this were squared away...
