Fyi. I must say I disagree with [ATF] last sentence. Seems to me the "bottom line" has changed quite a bit,

Final version after going direct with our attache in mexico. The car stop story is incorrect.

Actual sequence:

Gonzalez was kidnapped from his home. Heldn beaten for 4 days and then strangled. Perps hold body 8 days then bury. During initial 4 days neighbors see "men with hoods on" being dragged in and out of the house (compound) and advise federal police. Police later mount an assault on the compound and a firefight ensues. Police take 8 into custody and recover 16 weapons from compound. [ATF] Perps confess to kidnap, torture, and location of body. [ATF]

[ATF] Bottom line has not changed -

A little bit more from MX /my guys are trying to get at least some added info tonight:

Homicide victim was beaten over a 4 day period and then strangled. He was not shot. Perps held the body 8 days after death. perps are part of the same plaza boss's crew. Still no word on any guns in compound.

A quick correction and a request - police reports are coming from SIEDO not SEDENA. Planned indictment of State AG is close hold and not for publication.

Matt:

In order to be sure of the facts my guys are going to SEDENA to pull the reports in the morning. We cannot get them tonight. We know the raid on the compound was a planned police action based on information that it was involved in the kidnap / torture. I cannot tell you now if any guns were recovered from the compound. I cannot tell you now if the car stop and raid on the compound are the same or simultaneous event(s) or if they were separated by time, geography, etc. I do not know if the car stop and post arrest statement from one of the defendants that he knew where the dead body was also provided the intel that led to the assault on the compound but I suspect that will turn out to be the case.

I am told that the State AG in Mx is to be indicted soon for her role with the cartels. I am also told that those responsible for the kidnaping are possibly associated with the plaza boss of interest in FF. I asked for details on why they think this is the case and was told that is a SCIF conversation.

If you need more tonight let me know. Otherwise I hope to have details by late morning.

One follow up question. Here is the relevant sentence from the Fox News article: "Gonzalez's body was found last November in a shallow grave outside the city after armed federal police forces raided the kidnappers' compound. Mexican officials arrested the suspects and confiscated the guns." <http://www.foxnews.com/politics/2011/06/17/two-ak47s-used-to-murder-mexican-lawyer-were-fast-and-furious-guns-sources-say/>. Your description below mentions a seizure of guns from guys in cars. Separate and apart from that seizure, was there another seizure of guns from the kidnappers' compound? If so, did any of those guns trace back to Fast and Furious? Thanks.

Matt

No. He was kidnapped in october. Some three weeks later police pull over 6 car loads of guys in the same neighborhood. 8 are arrested. 16 guns are recovered.

ATF

ATF

Guns recovered 11/4/10. Guns traced May 2011. We know of

ATF

No forensics on any of the guns

For fox to suggest the guns are linked is like saying there was a murder in southeast three weeks ago. Tonight a car load of guys get caught with guns in southeast. Ergo the guns are linked to the murder.

Were two F&F guns actually traced to the scene of this kidnapping? Can you run that down for us?

We have learned that 2 Fast and Furious guns have been traced to the scene of the kidnapping of the brother of the now former Attorney General of Chihuahua, the state where Juarez is located.

Mario Gonzales Rodriguez, a lawyer, was kidnapped in October 2010 and was killed in February of this year by a drug cartel. Videos of his torture were posted on U-Tube.

This received heavy publicity in Mexico – not just because he was a family member of a top law enforcement officer – but because of claims he made in the video that his sister while a state AG, protected the Juarez cartel.

While we know from testimony that many US guns from this operation did make it to Mexico, does the Department have any comment to the victims in Mexico of these guns and to the people of Mexico who were interested in this case.
