Dear Tracy,

I'm working on a story pertaining to the US Attorney's office in Arizona and its involvement in the Fast and Furious case.

I've put in an interview request with Dennis Burke and Emory Hurley, here in Arizona.

The public information officer, Robbie Sherwood, also suggested I contact you since some of my questions pertain to Fast and Furious.

I'm interested in conducting an interview with them - especially giving them a chance to respond to several complaints/allegations about the way cases had been handled before the Fast and Furious case was in full swing.

I'm certain they have seen the Congressional testimony in which ATF agents referred to the lack of prosecution during previous cases that had been presented to the US Attorney's Office.

I'd also like to learn more about their involvement in the Fast and Furious case.

I'd like to have a response by Wednesday at the latest.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Lori Jane Gliha
