Dear USAs:

Thank you for your time this evening, I wanted to send this just to summarize our telephone conversation and inform those of you who were unable to participate.

First, thank you for the work you do to fight gun trafficking. It is very important.

As I said on the call, to avoid any potential confusion, I want to reiterate the Department's policy: We should not design or conduct undercover operations which include guns crossing the border. If we have knowledge that guns are about to cross the border, we must take immediate action to stop the firearms from crossing the border, even if that prematurely terminates or otherwise jeopardizes an investigation.

We know you have difficult jobs to do and we fully support and appreciate your efforts to stop the flow of firearms through the apprehension and prosecution of all responsible parties.

As I said on our call, please make sure the SACs in your districts understand the policy.

Jim

Subject: Firearms cases

Yesterday, we received a directive from the DAG, instructing on DOJ's policy regarding guns going south into Mexico. "We should not design or conduct undercover operations which include guns crossing the border. If we have knowledge that guns are about to cross the border, we must take immediate action to stop the firearms from crossing the border, even if that prematurely terminates or otherwise jeopardizes an investigation." This would include cases where we are working with the Mexican government to have them follow the vehicles once they are in Mexico in order to find the purchaser. If a vehicle is lost in surveillance, take all steps to notify the ports to be on the look out to stop the vehicle/person at the POE.

Please distribute this to your agents to ensure they are clear on this policy.

If you have any questions about this policy, please call me.

Thanks

Alleged Gun Ring Busted

Authorities Say Smugglers Planned to Ship 700 Weapons to Mexican Cartels

By TAMARA AUDI

PHOENIX—Federal officials said Tuesday they busted a network of gun buyers and smugglers planning to ship 700 guns to Mexican drug cartels embroiled in deadly turf wars.

Law-enforcement officials arrested 17 people named in a 53-count indictment unsealed Tuesday. Police were still searching for three other people named in the indictment.

"The drug cartels go shopping for their war weapons in Arizona," said Dennis Burke, U.S. attorney for the District of Arizona. "One of Arizona's top exports is weapons for drug cartels."

Reuters

Dennis Burke, U.S. attorney for the District of Arizona, detailed the bust at a Phoenix news conference where some of the weapons were displayed.

The arrests come on the heels of Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's visit Monday to Mexico City for talks with Mexican President Felipe Calderón that addressed the battle against drug violence in Mexico.

The war among drug cartels fighting to control territory and supply routes has fueled violence in Mexico that has killed more than 34,000 people in the country since 2006.

Of the 73,000 illegal firearms seized in Mexico since December 2006, officials estimate that 90% originated in the U.S.

Officials in Arizona, Texas and California have targeted gun-smuggling rings in the past four years by going after "straw purchasers," who buy guns legally in the U.S., then hand them over to an intermediary who transports the weapons across the border to Mexican drug cartels.

That process is meant in part to shield the true buyer of the weapons from law enforcement. The straw purchasers are sometimes single mothers and unemployed Americans offered a few hundred dollars to buy a weapon and hand it over, federal authorities said.

"This is a huge problem in our state," said Mr. Burke.

Authorities in Phoenix have busted gun-smuggling rings in the past—most notably last year when they seized 1,300 weapons from Arizona and New Mexico they believed were bound for Mexico.

Tuesday's bust was a more complex case designed to snag both straw purchasers and organizers of the scheme, law-enforcement officials said. And it represents the state's most significant case against gun smuggling so far, Mr. Burke said.

The arrests represent "a complete dismantling, from top to bottom, of a Phoenix-based organization that we believe supplies guns to drug cartels in Mexico," said Bill Newell, special agent in charge of the Phoenix division of the Bureau of Alcohol Tobacco Firearms and Explosives.

Law-enforcement officials say the gun supply to Mexico is difficult to track in part because there are no federal limits on the number of long guns, or rifles, that an individual can legally buy. In addition, licensed gun dealers aren't required to alert federal authorities of multiple rifle purchases as they are with handguns.

More than 500 weapons were seized by authorities, both in the U.S. and Mexico. It's unclear what, if any, impact this will have on the flow of guns over the border. Mr. Newell acknowledged that Tuesday's bust could be just a drop in the bucket, but added, "We have to keep trying."

Among the alleged straw purchases detailed in the indictment: One man allegedly bought two AK-47 rifles from a Glendale, Ariz., gun dealer on Nov. 3. A week later, he allegedly purchased 10 AK-47s from the same dealer. Two days later, he allegedly bought five more of the same weapon; a month later he allegedly purchased 20 more.

Hello [REDACTED] ATF

[REDACTED] ATF is scheduled to attend medic tactical re-cert next week in El Paso, TX.

She is the case agent on a southbound firearms trafficking investigation that is being closely monitored by DAD McMahon (FO) and DAD Martin (OSII). We are anticipating significant investigative movement in the next 5-10 days and need [REDACTED] ATF to be in Phoenix to coordinate the investigation.

Could she please be excused from re-cert and rescheduled to the March training to satisfy the re-cert requirement?

Thank you, and please contact me if you have any questions.

I advised AUSA Russ Leachman through SAs [ATF] to provide me with a Grand Jury Subpoena for RAC [ATF] in Phoenix to obtain the required evidence needed in our investigation here. AUSA Leachman has now advised the AUSA in Phoenix that the ATF agents here need access to the case in Phoenix since the ATF Phoenix office refuses to provide us with the evidence.

I wish that [ATF] would have given those subpoenas to me but if the AUSA in Phoenix refuses to comply then maybe Phoenix should start preparing their explanations for the way that they conducted their straw purchase cases there. They should probably hire a media expert anyway to assist them in explaining the 2000 firearms and the possible connection in the murder of the Border Patrol Agent.

For what it's worth and since I don't like the perception that we allowed guns to "walk", I had [ATF] pull the numbers of the guns recovered in Mexico as well as those we had a direct role in taking off here in the US. Almost all of the 350 seized in the US were done based on our info and in such a way to not burn the wire or compromise the bigger case. The guns purchased early on in the case we couldn't have stopped mainly because we weren't fully aware of all the players at that time and people buying multiple firearms in Arizona is a very common thing.

This relates to the big shootout two weeks ago in Sonora. Two rival DTOs went at it, Sinaloa and Juarez I believe. Maybe [REDACTED] ATF has more details. I told [REDACTED] ATF we were within 45-60 days of taking this down IF the USAO goes with our 846/924(c) conspiracy plan. Feel free to let [REDACTED] ATF know more details.

Bill at least one gun recovered in this shootout comes back to [REDACTED] ATF case. What's the status. I anticipate questions from the GOM and Ambo. I can blow off the GOM, not so much with the Ambo.

RC-3
RC-3 I don't like HQ driving our cases but understand the "sensitivities" of this case better than anyone. ATF prosecution, RC-3 Once we establish that link we can hold this case up as an example of the link between narcotics and firearms trafficking which would be great on a national media scale but if the Director wants this case shut down then so be it.

Bill,

We need to begin working on an "exit strategy" for this case. Let me know what your plans are for taking this case down to include the timing.

Also, can I get a write up on Wide Receiver? Billy is meeting with ATF tomorrow and this case is on the agenda.

Thanks,

William G. McMahon

[redacted] ATF these are the guns. [redacted] ATF is going to trace them. The pgr is thinking that these are all going to sinaloa. The reason is they are avoiding nogales where the Z are hunting them. Chapo is arming for a war.

This is the list of guns from the Mexicali seizure that occurred from 12/09/09 through 12/10/09. The totals are included in the heading of the attached document. We are suspecting that these guns are coming from a trafficking crew based out of phoenix who have bought approximately [redacted] ATF [redacted] ATF is the case agent out of Phoenix and we are in contact with her.

These will be traced by Tijuana.
