Nope. Unrelated. And I don't read those blogs anyway. Thanks for looping us in. I hope all is well and let us know if you need any practice painting.

Hey there Nippers, I saw a posting on one of the many internet blogs this AM covering the scandal de jour and both of you were mentioned in connection with the ODAG gig (Mark) and former CoS for the Director (Viv).

The posting wasn't the usual angry screed or whistleblower claim, but having been mentioned myself several times in most unflattering way on these blogs it is not something I ever enjoy.
