
From: Pope, Amy (CRM)
To: Axelrod, Matthew (ODAG); Reich, Steven (ODAG); Ramirez, Monica (ODAG)
Sent: 9/19/2011 12:29:09 PM
Subject: FW: Mexico Still Waiting For Answers On Fast And Furious Gun Program
Attachments: image001.jpg

In case you didn't catch this one in the Sac Bee...

Most frustrating:

Marisela Morales, Mexico's attorney general and a longtime favorite of American law enforcement agents in Mexico, told the Los Angeles Times that she first learned about Fast and Furious from news reports. And to this day, she said, U.S. officials have not briefed her on the operation gone awry, nor have they apologized.

Read more: <http://www.sacbee.com/2011/09/18/3920397/mexico-still-waiting-for-answers.html#ixzz1YPt7g2Du>

From: Hintz, Bruce
Sent: Monday, September 19, 2011 12:17 PM
To: Pope, Amy
Cc: Acosta, Carlos; Risheim, Carl A (Mexico City); Zimmon, Garrett; Rivera, Raymond; Santos, Virna L.
Subject: Mexico Still Waiting For Answers On Fast And Furious Gun Program

Amy,

In the event you haven't already seen this reporting ---

<http://www.sacbee.com/2011/09/18/3920397/mexico-still-waiting-for-answers.html>

Bruce Hintz
Merida Assistance Coordinator
ICITAP/DOJ
202/307-1357
bruce.hintz@usdoj.gov
www.usdoj.gov/criminal/icitap

