great witness list--Larry Noble, who truly thinks we should be putting signers of 990s in prison for tax fraud, Greg Colvin, who wrote the letter asking us to confirm the 2 rev.rules apply to c4s--so he will say we are do nothings and Brad Smith --former FEC Commissioner who has stated publicly that he doesn't believe in campaign finance laws --should be interesting

This is actually ok, bc for many of the questions, you can refer to the second panel which you should not stay for.

Subject: Witness list

I confirmed that Patty will be on the first panel with the DOJ witness. The entire witness list is below.

They wanted me to confirm - is this how you should be listed on the witness list:

Patricia Haynes
Deputy Chief, Criminal Investigation
Internal Revenue Service
Washington, DC

Panel 1

- Mythili Raman, Acting Assistant Attorney General for the Criminal Division, Department of Justice. They expect AAG Raman to speak about FECA violations relating to coordination, conduit transfers, and foreign donors.
- Patricia Haynes, Deputy Chief, Criminal Investigation, Internal Revenue Service

Panel 2

- Larry Noble, President, Americans For Campaign Reform. Mr. Noble worked at the FEC for twenty years, including as FEC General Counsel from 1987 -2000.

- Gregory Colvin, Principal, Adler & Colvin. Mr. Colvin is a tax lawyer specializing in political and lobbying activities of nonprofit organizations.
- Bradley Smith, Professor of Law, Capital University Law School (Invited by Ranking Member Graham). Prof. Smith is a former commissioner and chairman of the FEC.
