Re: Amendment to Financial Disclosure Report for the Year 2005

Dear Committee:

Please consider this letter as an amendment to my Financial Disclosure Report for the year 2005.

Under section IV of my report, I listed "None." Section IV required disclosures for reimbursement for transportation, lodging, food, or entertainment. The only reimbursement that I had that could have been responsive to this section is my participation in a seminar at the Aspen Institute on International Human Rights and Humanitarian Law: Its Application in National Jurisprudence on April 29 through May 1, 2005, Wye Woods, Eastern Shore, Maryland.

My reimbursements for that trip amounted to $280 (conference, room, food, and audio/visual). The instructions for section IV of the report state that only those reimbursements of $305 or more are reportable. In addition, I had my secretary call the Committee to ask whether I should report the Aspen Institute seminar. The Committee said not to report it because the reimbursement was only for $280.

I have recently learned, however, that my colleagues who attended this seminar did put it on their disclosure form for one reason or another. I, therefore, thought that I would do the same. Please let me know if I need to take any other action with respect to this amendment.

Sincerely,

Mary A. McLaughlin
