Docket Text:

MINUTE ORDER. In view of [9] the parties' joint proposed schedule, the parties are directed to file a joint status report by no later than August 14, 2015. Pursuant to [9] the parties' agreement, this status report shall: "[A]ddress the status of the rolling production and whether the parties need the Court to set a briefing schedule to determine any issues at that time. The Service will include in the status report whether the search is complete. If the search is not complete, the Service will, to the extent practicable, provide an estimate regarding when the search will be completed. The Service will also include in the status report whether the rolling production is complete. If the rolling production is not complete, the Service will, to the extent practicable, provide an estimate regarding when the rolling production will be completed." Signed by Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on June 4, 2015. (lcegs2)
