Docket Text:

MINUTE ORDER (paperless). The Court has received and considered the parties' [8] Joint Status Report regarding further proceedings in this FOIA case. Although the parties disagree on various aspects of setting a schedule, they agree that the first production of responsive documents should be on August 20, 2015. Accordingly, Defendant shall make its first production of responsive records by no later than AUGUST 20, 2015. In addition, the parties shall file a Joint Status Report by no later than SEPTEMBER 1, 2015, proposing a schedule for further productions and indicating the volume and scope of responsive documents. The parties shall meet and confer with sufficient time prior to the filing of that Joint Status Report such that the Status Report reflects both parties' positions on a proposed schedule. The Court will not set a final deadline for all productions until after it has had an opportunity to consider that Joint Status Report—in order to leave open the possibility that the production of documents can be completed more expeditiously than the January 2016 deadline proposed by the Defendant. In the interim, however, the Court will tentatively require the rolling productions to continue every six weeks after the initial August 20, 2015, production. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 7/7/2015. (lcckk2)
