

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

NOV 3 0 2015

Case No. F-2014-11262

Segments: S/ES-0008, S/ES-0009, IPS-0002

Ms. Kate Bailey
Judicial Watch
425 Third St. SW, Suite 800
Washington, DC 20024

Dear Ms. Bailey:

I refer to our letter dated November 12, 2015, regarding the release of certain Department of State records under the Freedom of Information Act ("the FOIA"), 5 U.S.C. § 552.

The Department has completed the review of the records retrieved from the supplemental search of the Office of the Secretary. We have determined that of the remaining 14 documents, 11 may be released in full and 3 may be released with excisions. The Department has also completed the review of materials provided by former Department employees Huma Abedin, Cheryl Mills, and Jacob Sullivan. We have determined that the remaining responsive document from these materials may be released in full.

An enclosure explains the FOIA exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made excisions, the applicable FOIA exemptions are marked on each document. All released material is enclosed.

In processing the documents retrieved in our original searches, the Department determined that two of those documents had originated with other agencies. Both of those documents were referred to other government agencies for review and direct response to you.

Please be advised that this completes our processing of your request. If you have any questions, your attorney may contact Assistant United States Attorney Robert Prince at (202) 305-3654 or robert.prince@usdoj.gov. Please be sure to refer to the case number, shown above, in all communications about this case.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Susan P. Weidner for".

John F. Hackett, Director
Office of Information Programs and Services

Enclosures: As stated.

The Freedom of Information Act (5 USC 552)

FOIA Exemptions

| IRAN | Iran Claims Settlement Act, Sec 505, 50 USC 1701, note |
- (b)(4) Privileged/confidential trade secrets, commercial or financial information from a person
- (b)(5) Interagency or intra-agency communications forming part of the deliberative process, attorney-client privilege, or attorney work product
- (b)(6) Information that would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy
- (b)(7) Information compiled for law enforcement purposes that would:
- (A) interfere with enforcement proceedings
 - (B) deprive a person of a fair trial
 - (C) constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy
 - (D) disclose confidential sources
 - (E) disclose investigation techniques
 - (F) endanger life or physical safety of an individual
- (b)(8) Prepared by or for a government agency regulating or supervising financial institutions
- (b)(9) Geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells

Other Grounds for Withholding

- NR Material not responsive to a FOIA request, excised with the agreement of the requester

Check it out – quick readout from RRU of Rashad’s AJ interview. I must say, from my seat, it was his best interview of the day. If you’re going to have a best interview, it might as well have been on the biggest show on the biggest network.

All,

Here’s Nahla’s quick read-out of how Al Jazeera framed the interview.

Nahla says Mr. Hussein gave a very strong interview. She thought he very effectively quoted an earlier Egyptian interlocutor calling for reason and peaceful solutions. He also quoted Koranic verses on non-violence, forgiveness, and not killing, which should play very well with the audience though it was met with a rather hostile reaction from the interviewer, who seemed caught off-guard.

After the interview, AJ news reported that Mitt Romney is getting criticized by other Republicans for taking advantage of the crisis for political motives.

Following the news, there was an interview with Dr. Mohamed Al-Jawadi, a historian and political analyst who was asked if Secretary Clinton’s statements are enough to stem the tide of outrage. He said the State Department has achieved cooperation with the Islamic work by supporting and respecting the people’s aspirations and now has strong relationships based on mutual respect and respecting laws, but there are those in Egypt, Libya, Yemen, and the US who wish to destroy that cooperation. When asked how to prevent future violent incidents at US Embassies, he emphasized the importance of strong judicial institutions to address charges of breaking laws and denigrating religions, so the cases may be settled within legal systems. Educating people about religions and dispelling misconceptions, especially about Islam, is also very important.

Best regards,

Rebecca

Subject: Saudi Grand Mufti calls attacks on foreign embassies un-Islamic (Reuters)

RIYADH (Reuters) - Saudi Arabia's Grand Mufti, the highest religious authority in the birthplace of Islam, on Saturday denounced attacks on diplomats and embassies as un-Islamic after deadly protests against a U.S.-made film mocking Islam's founder.

Sheikh Abdulaziz bin Abdullah Al al-Sheikh also called on governments and international bodies to criminalise insults against prophets and excoriated the film that has prompted a wave of fury across the Middle East.

"It is forbidden to punish the innocent for the wicked crimes of the guilty, or to attack those who have been granted protection of their lives and property, or to expose public buildings to fire or destruction," he said in a speech carried by state news agency SPA.

Describing the release of the crudely made short film as "miserable" and "criminal", he added that attacks on the innocent and diplomats "are also a distortion of the Islamic religion and are not accepted by God".

At least nine people were killed after noon prayers on Friday in demonstrations across the Middle East.

NewsTickers alert senior Department officials to breaking news. This item appears as it did in its original publication and does not contain analysis or commentary by Department sources.

Checking now. He left a pouch at your residence of the items you can keep.

You'll notice on the schedule in your pouch from the office, that the Somali president is listed at 2:45. We are hoping to move that to 3pm in case Dav goes long. Is that OK with you?

A pouch with all of your call sheets and the schedule in en route to you. Here it is below as well.

Also in the pouch are a few read items, and an action memo authorizing the War Powers resolution for Tunisia that the office would like you to approve today. Ops can send a courier over to pick up the action memo later today.

12:00 UK FM Hague
12:15 Egyptian FM Amr
12:30 Israeli PM Netanyahu
1:15 French FM Fabius
1:30 Saudi FM Saud al-Faisal
2:00 Somali Former Transitional President Sharif
2:15 Libyan PM-elect Abu-Shakour
2:30 Turkish FM Davutoglu
3:00 Somali President Mohamoud (T)

- Moroccan King is still pending.

- NEW CALL: King Juan Carlos of Spain called today and offered anytime today or tomorrow. His office relayed that it is a personal call inquiring after the status of the Embassies in the Middle East. We are working on a call sheet

Jake,

I received this note on Wednesday while traveling, soon after the news of the death of Chris Stevens broke. It is from Bob Bergdahl, father of Sgt. Bowe Bergdahl. Please convey it to the Secretary.

Best,

Barneu

Dear Barney,

Please convey our abiding condolences to everyone in Foreign Service.
Your service is most noble and almost invisible.
Our Nation is stumbling through a very volatile world.
The "Crusade" paradigm will never be forgotten in this part of the world and we force our Diplomats to carry a lot of baggage around while walking on eggshells.

Be very careful my friend!

I'm very sorry,

bob

Max knows how to do this and fearless. Hope it's useful and gets around, especially in the Middle East.

Keep speaking and clarifying. Your statements have been strong. Once through this phase, you might clarify history of US policy on Arab Spring, what has been accomplished, US interests at stake, varying relations with Libya & Egypt, etc.

Romney, of course, is contemptible, but contemptible on a level not seen in past contemptible political figures. His menace comes from his emptiness. His greed is not limited simply to mere filthy lucre. The mixture of greedy ambition and hollowness is combustible. He will do and say anything to get ahead, and while usually self-immolating he is also destructive. Behind his blandness lies boundless ignorance, ignited by consistently wretched judgment. His recent statements are of a piece with everything else he has done from naming Ryan to his welfare ads, etc.

Keep speaking...

Sid

Dear Hillary,

Very sad days for our service. Your remarks, and those of the President, were dignified and honored the service diplomats provide the nation. Thank you and please thank the President.

Chris Stevens was processing into the service as we were in the middle of Desert Shield/Storm and was no doubt influenced and inspired by the efforts of our embassies in Baghdad and Kuwait during that time. He knew the risks, and as you and the President noted, was willing to take them to make the world a little bit better.

Glen Doherty was a fellow member of the Military Religious Freedom Foundation Advisory Board, which fights to ensure that our military is not further compromised by the Christian Dominionists who seek to turn it into an instrument of their religious zealotry, an army for Christ rather than for the defense of our nation. He was invaluable in helping us uncover several cases where religious indoctrination was taking place under the guise of military training. I will miss him.

Thank you for your leadership at the State Department. You have been a terrific Secretary and I know you will be missed. But I also know that you will continue to provide inspiration and leadership to countless billions around the globe. Valerie joins me in sending our love during these difficult days.

With best wishes,

Joe Wilson
