This looks good. Two small edits:

- 1. We call it "the US mission" or the "US diplomatic post" because it is not actually a Consulate.
- 2. There is a missing "of" in the third tic.

If these are going to be finalized by Sunday am (or COB today), can we get a copy for Susan to ensure we're on the same msg? Happy to have Eric/Erin work with whomever on the State team is handling this, unless it's you - in which case happy to get them directly. Whatever is easiest.

Susan,

It's very possible that he is dead. The SWO told me that a senior Libyan official called our DCM to extend his condolences. We have not seen or recovered a body (resources that flew in from Tripoli are attempting to do that - NFI); however, there is apparently a photo on twitter of someone carrying a body that resembles Chris over their shoulder. I have not seen the photo myself.

I have asked the Ops Center to call me if there are additional developments throughout the night.

Susan,

I talked to the Operations Center just now. They told me two additional details:

- Security forces from Tripoli arrived in Benghazi.
- Post received a call from a person using a RSO phone that Chris was given saying that the caller was with a person matching Chris's description at a hospital and that he was alive and well. Of course, if he were alive and well, one could ask why he didn't he make the call himself.

The fighting has stopped, DCM Greg Hicks just confirmed to me. He also confirmed one fatality: Sean Smith – a TDY'er from The Hague – has died. His body has been recovered. The five ARSOs are accounted for, but they're still trying to find the Ambassador. The Principal Officer's residence is still on fire with toxic smoke.

Jones just spoke with DCM Tripoli Greg Hicks, who advised a Libyan militia (we now know this is the 17th Feb brigade, as requested by Emb office) is responding to the attack on the diplomatic mission in Benghazi. The QRF is in the compound, engaging the attackers, taking fire, and working its way through the compound to get to the villa, where Ambassador Stevens is in safe haven for extraction. The ARSO is also there in the compound. Greg spoke with Amb Stevens by phone 20 minutes before my call (which was about ten minutes ago. [redacted])
