Can you be sure Philippe has collected comments like these for the 100 days stories? Also I'd like to meet w or have a conf call w the team working on it--PJ, et al--to discuss ideas.

Watching your public comings and goings with big smile on my face
Watching James Baker on tv (two'd fareed zakaria, from this morning) lauding your performance--loving every moment of this for you
Do you ever rest?
I know you are "doing good". I hope you're having some fun and that all is well
