

with an open Q&A. Given that only vetted participants can enter the secure areas of the airport, we wouldn't want to host a full roundtable at that time.

- Dates – I'll let Jennifer (b) (6), (b) (7)(C) note which dates would work best for their teams, but agree that Wed and Thurs evenings seem to work best. From our end, we'd look to dates after the Feb 15 holiday, so that people would have time to plan for the event and we could vet the names once received.
- Invite language – I've included the language we used for the last invite for reference. We (CBP) can vet all of those that RSVP, but need at least one full business day to do so. For anyone who does not pass vetting, our preference would be for CRCL to reach out to them and advise that we cannot accommodate them for the tour. You may recall that we had two parties show up last year that did not pass vetting. Attempts were made to contact them, but to no avail.

Thank you,

(b) (6), (b) (7)(C)
