Hi Huma-

Hope Italy amazing. Bhutan is persistently breathtaking.

See below. I only want to walk the most appropriate line advisable here, so whatever you think that is, please just let me know.

I'll forward you the other emails/attachments in a moment as well.

Thank you as always,

Marc

Hi,

I found out we have a policy of him not doing these types of letters, because they would be letters to his wife, which is strange obviously. We should ask Huma to advise.

Hey

Having email issues - not surprising from Bhutan! - so I'm afraid this never got out!

To that end, do you think its appropriate for the President to write a letter on her/his behalf? If not - which I would completely understand - is there someone else you would recommend who possibly could whom I could reach out to? If yes, please ask the President if he would be willing to and if yes, could we arrange for a letter faxed from the President or someone in the office, vouching for [redacted] I don't think it's appropriate to go via the secretary's office as obviously that's much more than merely a positive reference, which is the limit of what I would feel comfortable with or think appropriate.

Any thoughts on this? Trust your judgment as to the best way to proceed.

Anyways, hope all else well! We just landed in Bhutan and are ready for adventure.
